40 Scouts To Get Awards
Here MondayMost Important Court Of Honor In City's History
Will Be Held

Much the largest and most important Court of Honor ever held by the two Boy Scout troops in Sierra Madre will take place in St. Rita's auditorium at 7:30 Monday evening, when 40 boys receive merit badges and awards for outstanding achievement in Scout activities.

With so much civic interest being shown in youth activities, Scoutmaster Craig McLaughlin hopes that parents and townspeople will attend the ceremonies en masse to show appreciation for the splendid work these young Scouts have done in laying the foundation for good citizenship.

Everyone in Sierra Madre is invited to the ceremony, especially parents and citizens who have taken a deep interest in the youth movement. Parents who attend may be given the privilege of presenting their sons with their badges or other awards. Public interest in the Scout activities as indicated by the attendance of citizens at the courts of honor has a more stimulating effect upon the boys than anything else, according to Scoutmaster McLaughlin.

The record of Boy Scouts' service to the community in times of disaster and emergency and their achievements in character building and citizenship training is expected to take on added significance in the face of changing national and international conditions.

A new emergency service training program is about to be adopted by local Scout troops through which boys will be taught to assume the present vital responsibility of strengthening and invigorating democracy in the United States.

Roland Paul Series
Is Introduced To
Grand Opera Season

Opera lovers for the first time are having the opportunity to come into intimate contact with Roland Paul, whose current series of dramatic opera readings and interpretations at the Sierra Madre Wistaria Vine Salon reaches the mid-way mark Sunday evening with Mozart's "Don Giovanni."

Paul, now a naturalized American, was a Canadian by birth, graduated from McGill University and received his musical training in Montreal, London, Paris, Berlin and New York. He is recently retired as musical director of the Euterpe Opera Reading Club of Los Angeles, where he was noted as a master of tone production and repertoire.

The Sierra Madre series serves as an introduction to the coming 1940 San Francisco opera season in Los Angeles and Pasadena. Circumstances leading to the writing of the operas, commentary on the work, and the dramatic reading of the opera itself are included in the programs, and Sunday evening a social hour will be inaugurated. Supper reservations may be made in advance by phone.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

PERSONALLY I cannot agree with my friends who are objecting to the turning of the W. Jarvis Barlow estate into a seminary. I think a seminary would be a distinct asset to this town. For years the Barlows were good citizens and good neighbors and our town was proud of them. They attracted other good citizens here. Now we can do something for them and we should do it.

SIERRA MADREAN IN ETON
HEARS BOMBING OF LONDON
BUT SEES NO DEBRIS

The first letter written by Mrs. Laurence Le Fevre, of Eton, England, since the heavy aerial bombardment of Britain was received here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Schwartz, this week. Although no bombs had been dropped in the immediate vicinity of Eton when the letter was written, Mrs. Le Fevre speaks of hearing the "alarms" and, in her last letter, of hearing the bombs themselves exploding in the dis-

New Fire Horn Tests
Frighten Timid
Sierra Madreans

The new fire horn recently purchased by the City Council to replace the long familiar siren atop the city hall, has finally been installed. Many citizens almost had nervous prostration while firemen tested the new contrivance to see whether it covered every district with its bullish grunts.

No doubt the horn is far more efficient since it eliminates calling the telephone operator to find out the location of the fire; but it certainly has none of the spine-tickling thrill that a wailing siren had when it whined through the stillness of the night and started the dogs barking.

Coded districts, designated by the number of horn blasts, are being revised so that every portion of the community will be fully covered and firemen will know locations of the fire by the number of blasts.

Womans Club
Year Opens
WednesdayService To Be Stressed At Homecoming Tea And Musical

A year of "Enriched Living Through Service" will begin for Sierra Madre clubwomen next Wednesday afternoon, when the club year opens at 2 o'clock with a homecoming tea and musicale. Dr. W. B. Heagerty, rector of the Church of the Ascension, will give the invocation which will be followed by the president's message.

Officers serving with Mrs. Waverly Pratt for the coming year, which many clubwomen believe will demand the greatest personal service, as new problems arise to add to the already crucial state of the nation and the world are: Miss Hazel James Ferguson, first vice-president; Mrs. William Lees, second vice-president; Mrs. Ben Mobley, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Carter, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Maybelle Barker, treasurer, and Miss Clara Sykes, auditor. Directors are Mesdames John H. Robertson, Johnson Irish, Arthur Embrey, Percy Kortkamp, Al W. Miller, Adria Johnson, Ross Marshall, and Richard Patterson.

Department chairmen have been designated as follows: art, Mrs. A. J. Dewey; bridge, Mrs. Ernest Best, who will be assisted by Mrs. Albert J. Thomas; child welfare, Mrs. Johnson Irish; community and civic service, Mrs. Ross Marshall; courtesy and hospitality, Mrs. W. L. Burr; drama, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger; federation contact, reciprocity, Mrs. John H. Robertson; gardens, Mrs. W. J. Lawless; house, Mrs. M. A. Capps; international relations, Miss Mary Switz; legislation, Mrs. C. A. Vane; membership, Mrs. Waverly Pratt; parliamentary, Mrs. John H. Robertson; philanthropy, Mrs. Percy Kortkamp; program and music, Miss Hazel James Ferguson; reservations, Mrs. Al W. Miller; spiritual appreciation, Mrs. J. S. Billheimer; ways, means and rentals, Mrs. William Lees.

The musical program on Wednesday will be presented by Frances Furstenberger, mezzo contralto concert and radio soloist, and Harley Pryor, lyric baritone of Pasadena, who will be accompanied by the well known Pasadena pianist, Paul Roe Goodman.

Miss Furstenberger will include in her group "Morning" by Ole Skaas; "Voce di Donna," from La Gioconda, and will sing three duets with Mr. Pryor, who has chosen for his solos, "The Silver Birch," lyrics by Mary Ward prominent Sierra Madre poet; "Deh Vieni alla Finestra" from Don Giovanni, Mozart; "Night and Day," Cole Porter, and "The Cork Leg" Herbert Hughes.

tance. An excerpt from her letter follows: "The siren sounded half an hour ago and Laurence has gone out again. He hasn't been to bed before 3:30 a.m. for several nights, although we only hear bombs and gunfire here and haven't seen any debris or planes. "Yesterday homeless people from the docks in London arrived here, and I had to find a home

VOICE OF FREE AMERICA

By PERLEY POORE SHEEHAN

Weeks. We have 'em. All sorts—sentimental, pure silly, pontifical, naively commercial. Prune week. Baby week—as if every week wasn't baby week for the family that has one.

But this—this is something different. This is National Newspaper Week. And turn that over in your mind for a bit of silent contemplation. How only in a country that is free may newspapers become the voice of its people. And how there—and only there it seems—may the Voice Which is Still and Small yet make itself to be heard in the land.

All of us often must have wondered about that old aphorism, "Vox populi, vox Dei." Ourselves, we've wondered about it often enough—cynically at times, when we've read something with which we bitterly disagree, or heard a statement that made us want to screech; or even now when we survey fresh multitudes of tawdry magazines and books—for the making of which we the people cut down our trees. Yet, listen and you'll hear it. Not in the voice of them that shout, even though this be from Hollywood or Munich. But the Voice that is as ever Still and Small and speaks through the local newspaper. You'll hear it however much you may disagree with certain details of opinion that find expression there. It speaks in that ever-present, all-pervasive, multiple whisper of a general friendliness, of goodwill to man and beast, the love of flowers and music, the encouragement of all the arts and education, a steadfast stand for all the decencies. Never the voice of them that shout, nor yet that of the wind, the earthquake, or the fire. But, eternally, the Still Small Voice, the same that Elijah heard. Vox populi, vox Dei—the voice of our free American press.

And so, Salute, this National Newspaper Week! Salute, our own SIERRA MADRE NEWS!

VITAL TO CITY'S PROGRESS

By HICKS CONEY

Assistant City Editor, Los Angeles Examiner

"FLASH: Chamberlain resigns."

It is 2 a.m. Thursday in Southern California as this is written.

An aged man has again given way that younger blood may take up the strain of a nation's battle.

Millions of Americans will have read the news, discussed it and will probably be engrossed in other domestic or international developments ere this is read.

For that is the way of American newspaperdom—a constant parade of crescendo in type to keep Americans minutely aware of the ever-changing world picture.

Reporting of such news is but a small part of the service a newspaper gives its community.

It is "Newspaper Week" and it is fitting the people of Sierra Madre should know of the great asset they have in the "Sierra Madre News."

Few realize how it's publisher and competent staff glean the city and surrounding area to keep us conversant with every-day happenings. Nor of the charities of that staff and a myriad services rendered that never find their way to print. Of long hours of toil while most of us sleep to ensure Sierra Madre the promised weekly copy of their "News."

Let "Newspaper Week" become "Newspaper Year" if we must to make a personal trip to the "News" office and get acquainted with those whose efforts are so vital to the progress of Sierra Madre.

YOUR FRIEND --- THE NEWSPAPER

By LEE SHIPPEY

This week we should all consider our newspaper. Some of us don't seem to think much of it. Yet from cradle to grave it is John Citizen's best and most interested friend. When he is born it tells the news and friends call, or get up baby showers, and often they do and say things which mean much in the lives of the parents. When John Citizen becomes a school boy the paper tells of his illnesses, his accidents and his achievements. If he gets into trouble it treats him gently and whenever possible protects his reputation. When he marries it congratulates him and causes the whole community to beam on him. When he embarks in business it tries to help him. And when he passes on it reminds his friends and neighbors of the good things he did, and charitably forgets to mention the others.

Not one of us can read the home paper, week in and week out, without learning many things every week which interest him and often may be important to him. And yet some of us don't think it is worth a couple of dollars a year.

Evelyn Solury And
Dale Langley Wed
In Las Vegas

Evelyn Solury and Dale Langley had the town gasping when they returned to Sierra Madre Monday evening and announced that by way of an elopement to Las Vegas, Nevada, they had become "Mr. and Mrs." Happy friends poured into the newsstand and the NEWS office to congratulate the two whom it has long been rumored were "that way" about each other.

Mrs. Langley, daughter of Mrs. Euphemia Solury of 527 Manzanita avenue, is a graduate of Pasadena Junior College. Mr. Langley has been a member of the staff of the Sierra Madre News for nearly 10 years, during recent years in the capacity of composing room foreman.

The newlyweds are living at 312½ East Grand View.

Beats Letters

Will Rogers famous remark, "I only know what I read in the newspaper," echoed the sentiments of Charles Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Schwartz, now living in Providence, Rhode Island. In a letter to the NEWS, Schwartz asked that his name be entered on the subscription list as soon as possible since he found it easier to keep track of his family through the NEWS than by way of letters.

Find Your Name ---
And Two Seats
At The Theatre

YOU may find your name in one of the advertisements appearing in this issue of the NEWS. If you do you have also found an evening entertainment for yourself and a member of your family, or a friend, for the discovery is worth two tickets to the Wistaria Theatre. If you can't find your name this week, maybe you will be more fortunate next or some other week.

Three names will appear in as many advertisements in the NEWS each week until further notice. They will not be concealed, either. The advertisement may be anywhere in the paper—in the business and professional directory, in the want or display ads. But the names will be there. When you find your name simply bring it to the NEWS office and receive an order on the Wistaria Theatre for two best seats for the attraction of your choice. It's as simple as that.

This offer is made possible through co-operation of your hometown theatre.

School Will Train Young
ReportersPupils To "Cover" Their Homerooms For The Sierra
Madre News Each Week

Potential columnists are about to be born when the Sierra Madre Grammar school establishes a school paper. Juvenile reporters with a penchant for journalism are to be appointed from each classroom to contribute items of interest to the school as a whole. These same reporters will write a column to appear in the NEWS each week, beginning with the next issue.

Celebrating National Newspaper Week, teachers at the Grammar School are discussing with students the importance of a free press and the important part the press plays in retaining freedom of the American people.

To christen the new barbecue pit just completed on the school grounds, teachers, their wives and husbands, and members of the schoolboard will meet for their first get-together of the new school year, Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. Board members will have to consume their barbecued steaks in time to attend a board meeting that will follow. Civic organizations are invited by Superintendent Gerald Smith to use the barbecue whenever they like.

J. H. McLaughlin, new music instructor at the school, has asked parents who have youngsters interested in orchestra and band practice, to meet with him in the school auditorium tonight at 7:30 p.m. He hopes to discuss with parents first hand, rather than by relayed messages through their children, the problem of securing instruments and getting the students enrolled in band and orchestra practice as quickly as possible, in preparation for public concerts.

Recent Visitors To
This City Killed
En Route Home

A California vacation which included a pleasant visit with relatives here, had a tragic ending Monday for Capt. Arthur A. Ross, inspector of government airplanes, of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Ross, who were killed in an airplane crash while attempting a landing in South Carolina.

From meager details of the tragedy which reached J. C. Dickson, uncle of Capt. Ross, this week, it appears that at the time of the crash he was piloting the plane. As yet cause of the accident remains something of a mystery as Capt. Ross was an expert pilot and aviation authority. Last Thursday, he and Mrs. Ross, accompanied by Mrs. Thelma Ross Sommerville, his sister, spent the afternoon here with Mr. and Mrs. Dickson.

Former Resident
Dies At La Jolla
During Operation

Many Sierra Madreans were shocked this week by news of the sudden death of Miss Lillian Moore, at La Jolla last week. Miss Moore, who was well known in this community where she formerly made her home, died while undergoing surgery for a broken hip which she recently sustained in a fall while playing shuffleboard with a group of friends. Funeral services were conducted in La Jolla with cremation following.

Miss Moore was formerly superintendent of the maternity division at the Good Samaritan Hospital and more recently had been in private nursing in La Jolla. She was a graduate of the Montreal General Hospital.

Mercury Plays With
Summer And Fall

With the thermometer still wavering between Fall and Summer temperatures, Sierra Madreans couldn't decide whether to make summer wardrobes last a little longer or buy those new fall outfits. Townspeople with red noses, continued to sniffle as the temperature zig-zagged merrily between 97 on Saturday to 77 Thursday. Col. H. B. Hersey records the following:

Former Kersting
Court Jeweler Dies
In Long Beach

Henry Clement Greger, Sierra Madre jeweler, died at his Long Beach home last Thursday after several months illness. He had resided in Sierra Madre for 20 years, and moved to Long Beach just three months ago.

Mr. Greger, who was 63 at the time of his death, came to the United States from Moravia, Germany. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Josephine Fraiberg; a son, Henry E. Greger of Sierra Madre, two daughters, Miss Rose Greger and Mrs. H. C. Lillie of Cleveland, Ohio; a brother Joseph Greger, of Cleveland, and two grandchildren. Congregational services were conducted by Rev. Milton Gabrielson Monday at Mottell Chapel in Long Beach. Interment was at Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Read Pastors
Letter Of AcceptanceNew Minister Coming To
Congregational Church
About November 1

A letter from Dr. Frederic Grootsema, of Delavan, Wis., accepting a call to the pulpit of the Congregational Church here was read to the congregation at the Sunday morning service. The new minister expects to assume his duties here about November 1. Dr. Joseph Taylor, acting minister, read his letter, text of which follows:

"It is with a deep feeling of joy and pride that I accept the invitation of your church to be its minister and leader.

"I know that the opportunity for service which is before the church there in that community will challenge all my ability as pastor and minister. By the measure of Grace which is given me and with the close cooperation of the members and officers of the church, we, together shall build up the church and the Kingdom of God. May we, together, grow in spirit and in usefulness to our Lord and Master.

"Mrs. Grootsema is with me in my happiness and eagerness in accepting your call to service. May Our Heavenly Father richly bless our joint efforts, that our church may prosper and grow in strength and that men's lives may become more meaningful during our ministry. This is our earnest prayer as we make haste to come to you soon."

Born in 1909, Dr. Grootsema is of Dutch extraction. He was born in Kalamazoo, Mich., and obtained his master's degree from Kansas State College in 1933. For two years he was a teacher of biology at the University. Because of his interest in the ministry, however, he gave up the teaching profession and worked toward a Doctor of Divinity degree, granted him by the Chicago Theological Seminary in 1936. Until he became pastor of the Congregational Church in Delavan, he was active as a field worker and served as student pastor in Congregational churches in Illinois, South Dakota, Arizona and Indiana.

It is customary for a church employing a new pastor to pay the expense incurred in moving from one church to another. So enthusiastic have members of the local Congregational church been over Dr. Grootsema's appointment it will undoubtedly be possible to defray the cost by contribution instead of using church funds for the purpose. Former parishioners of Dr. Grootsema's in the East who are now living in Southern California have voluntarily mailed donations to the local church.

Dr. and Mrs. Grootsema have two little girls, Judith, 5 months old, and Alison, three years old.

SLOW REACTION OF SIERRA
MADREANS TO FIRE BOMBS
DISAPPOINTS OFFICIALS"Smoke In The Mountains"
Test Goes Almost Un-
heeded By Local Citizens

Are residents of Sierra Madre alert to fires? How quickly do they spot them? Do they know how to report a fire when they see one?

These questions have long perplexed local fire officials and forest rangers. So last Monday Pat Harlan, district ranger, set

To Oppose
Granting Of VarianceOpposition Develops To
Sale Of Barlow Estate
For School Purposes

Notice has been given that written and oral protests will be filed with the city planning commission next Thursday against granting of a variance to the zoning ordinance that would permit establishment of a seminary by the Capuchin Franciscan Order of the Catholic Church on the W. Jarvis Barlow estate.

Much interest is being shown in the public hearing fixed by the planning commission for Thursday evening in the city hall auditorium. Application for the variance was filed by Mrs. W. J. Barlow. Sale of the beautiful 16-acre estate to the Franciscan Order is dependent upon the latter's ability to establish a school for the training of young men for the priesthood. Mrs. Barlow has informed city officials of her inability to dispose of the property for residential purposes. The locality in which the estate is located is zoned exclusively for single family residences.

Regardless of the recommendation following its hearing next week, the city council must act finally on the variance application. Before it acts another public hearing will be held.

One protest of which notice has been given is based on the general ground that the zoning ordinance has operated well for the protection of all property and that granting a variance now would let down the bars and might result to the detriment of property values throughout the city.

A second protest is based on the proposition that conversion of the residence into a school property would automatically bring about a considerable reduction in the assessed valuation of the 16 acres involved, necessitating an increase in the tax rate on other properties.

Local Camera
Will Open Exhibit
This Evening

Taking charge of the monthly meeting of the Sierra Madre Arts Guild, the Sierra Madre Camera Club will open its first salon and color show in the assembly room of the city hall today. Formal opening of the exhibit is scheduled for 8 p.m. this evening when R. H. Hayden will talk on color processing.

Approximately 30 members of the club will be represented in the show which will include kodachromes. During recent months several members of the club have received national recognition for their work, with Harry Arnold, Bernard Wynne and Louis Zeigler among those receiving special awards.

Tonight's meeting is open to the public. The exhibit will continue until October 18.

High School Opens
Class To Train
Men Of Draft Age

Basic military instruction is to be included in the curriculum of the Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte high school's adult education department to train those men of draft age who desire training before being called into active service, purpose being that men previously trained will be able to command small groups and fit themselves for non-commissioned officer grades. Classes are open to all men over 18.

Instruction will include physical exercises, instruction in military courtesy, customs of the service, principles of discipline, training of the soldier, the squad and platoon. There will be an additional course in military maps under Major Beckwith, Monrovia engineer.

The theory of the smoke bombs is that they simulate real fires in appearance and are timed to last for 15 minutes, which, reason fire officials, is time enough for townspeople to sight fires and report them. First bomb was placed west of the Wistaria Vine Gardens on a hill top where smoke

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wright were luncheon hosts in Hollywood Thursday to the Misses Elsie, Anita and Trixie Mayer of Mexico City, and following an afternoon of sightseeing entertained their guests at dinner at their home, 540 West Alegria avenue. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wright and their guest Harvey Wright attended Charlots Review at the El Capitlan in Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Hurwit and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Weber were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Solnit for the traditional family Rosh Hoshana dinner Thursday evening.

Members of the Mapha Club will be entertained by Mrs. Henry Kampert at her home on West Grand View avenue this evening.

An ice cream elephant was the outstanding attraction for young Sierra Madreans who attended the fourth birthday anniversary party of Billy Evans, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Evans, Saturday afternoon. Those attending were Elva Pickett, Caroline Maloney, Farelene Wagner, Lois Thill, CV Hansen, Lawrence and Gerald Twedell, Gary Mason, Billy Burr, Michael Hawks and Michael O'Donnell.

The Paul Carters, Miss Annetta Carter, Arthur N. Carter and Mrs. Florence Carter Meade enjoyed a family dinner together at the Arthur Carter home Sunday, after the arrival of Mr. Carter and Miss Annetta Carter from Berkeley where Mr. Carter has been visiting for several weeks.

TWO OHIO FAMILIES FIND HOMES HERE

New residents in Sierra Madre during the last week are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lewis of Ohio who have taken apartment 1 at Belle Vue Court and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Atmore of Lima, Ohio, who are making their home at 10 Belle Vue Court.

VISIT DEATH VALLEY AT SUNDOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mobley, Mrs. H. C. Reavis and her father, H. H. Wooding, returned Tuesday evening from a two day trip to Boulder Dam from where they circled back through Death Valley which they crossed at sundown under perfect weather conditions.

He prayeth best who loveth best.—Coleridge.

NOTED WOMAN COMING TO TEA OF WILLKIE VOLUNTEERS AT WOMAN'S CLUBHOUSE

High light of the coming week's activities of the Willkie Volunteers of Sierra Madre will be an afternoon tea at the Sierra Madre Woman's clubhouse, Thursday, October 10 at 2 o'clock.

Mab Copeland Lineman, one of the best informed women in the Southland, with years of experience as a prominent Los Angeles attorney, author, and clubwoman, will be the speaker for the afternoon. Her discussion, "High Lights of National Affairs," will be interesting as well as informative, and an appreciative gathering filling the auditorium is expected.

Mrs. Ruth S. Smith, chairman of the Willkie Volunteers, will be in charge, assisted by Mrs. Amanda Freeland, secretary-treasurer of the group. Mrs. William Lees has generously agreed to serve as chairman in charge of the tea and with her committee a delightful afternoon is assured. Among the out-of-town guests who will be present are Miss Mimie Frances, granddaughter of the former governor, David F. Frances, of Missouri, later secretary of the Interior in Grover Cleveland's cabinet, who was named by Woodrow Wilson as Ambassador to Russia where he served through the revolution. Mrs. Chester Furgerson, long interested in National affairs, will also be present.

Over 150 Sierra Madreans have enrolled with the Willkie Volunteers, pledging themselves to this crusade to "Make America Safe for Democracy," according to Mrs. Smith. Several events have been planned for the next few weeks and every one will have an opportunity to enjoy a pleasant evening as well as hear splendid speakers, Mrs. Smith says.

PETINA AND BEATTIE TO SING SUNDAY

Southern California will have its first opportunity to hear Ira Petina and Douglas Beattie in song recital when they appear in joint concert next Sunday evening, October 6th, at 8:30 in the Pasadena Playhouse. While the popular mezzo soprano and bass of the Metropolitan Opera Company have sung here several times in opera and oratorio, this is the first song recital given by either in this vicinity.

SAN GABRIEL OPERA CO. OFFERS PROGRAM

Selections from grand operas, light operas, American ballads and folk-songs will make up an interesting program offered by soloists of the San Gabriel Opera Company the evening of Monday, October 7 at the beautiful new auditorium in the Mark Keppel High School. Laura Sears, the wonder child-coloratura, will be heard in a Aria from La Traviata besides a duet from the same opera and in the famous quartet from Rigoletto. L. E. Behnmer, noted impresario, has accepted the office of honorary chairman of the opera company.

COLEMAN CONCERTS RESUME OCT. 20

The Coleman Chamber Concerts open their 35th season Sunday evening, October 20th, at 8:30 in the Pasadena Playhouse, with the Trapp Family Singers. This singing family, composed of the wife, five daughters and two sons of Baron von Trapp, formerly of the Austrian Tyrol, present a program of motets, madrigals, folk and classical songs that has made them a star attraction in two years touring of America. They also do old English ballads and play ancient instruments that are rarely heard.

Miss Stanham Pupil Appears In Recital Sunday Afternoon

Announcing the first in a series of four student recitals to be given this fall, Louise Mae Stanham, pianist and teacher of Pasadena and Sierra Madre will present one of her advanced pupils, Marie Rodriguez, in a costume recital of Spanish music on Sunday afternoon, October 6, at 4 o'clock in her charming studio at 241 Ramona avenue. Miss Rodriguez will be assisted by Madeline Tonson, soprano, who will be heard in a group of Spanish songs.

Miss Rodriguez who has received her entire musical training from Miss Stanham, has been engaged to give programs later this month for the Pasadena Breakfast Club and the Pasadena Athletic Club. This Sunday afternoon's recital promises to be a colorful event and anyone interested is cordially invited by Miss Stanham to attend.

The simple heart that freely asks in love, obtains.—Whittier.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

Five Prevention Week! The nation will be fire conscious. Every citizen should be on the lookout for fires. Fires can do us an inestimable amount of damage.

Don't think that a lighted cigarette stub will not start a fire. Don't smoke in bed. Sometime you may fall asleep and awaken in another world.

Don't allow ashes to fall into the upholstery of your car. You may be in bed and sound asleep before the fire in the garage is discovered.

Don't use an iron until you have the proper safety stand on which to place it. Don't ever place it on the cloth covering of your board. When your neighbor calls you, you may return to find the house afire.

Fire Flames has been talking Fire Prevention for so many years that repetition is bound to appear, therefore:

Don't do anything that may start an unwanted fire.

Don't get careless! Little sparks to Big Fires Grow!

Many Night Classes For Adults

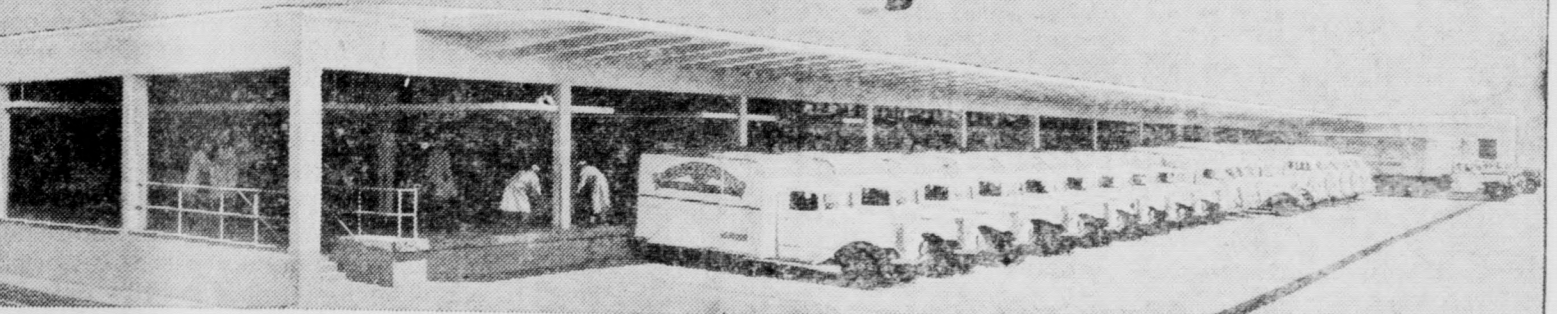

For people who wish to augment a limited education or who have vocations for which they wish further supervised instruction, Monrovia is instituting a series of night school classes at the Monrovia-Arcadia-Duarte high school.

Classes include instruction in correct English, public speaking, dramatics, diction, fine art of reading, book reviews, short story writing, English, citizenship, drama, history, psychology, office practice, shorthand, typewriting, bookkeeping, orchestra, piano, men's chorus, millinery, leather work, sewing and dressmaking, home decoration, arts and crafts, printing, Spanish, parent education, wood working, wood carving, book binding, auto mechanics, physical education, rugmaking, photography, lip reading, Americanization and Pan-American relations.

Everybody finds out, sooner or later, that all success worth having is founded on Christian rules of conduct.

NEW HOME of SAFEWAY Guaranteed MEATS

THIS WEEK Safeway announces the opening of a brand new $430,000 home for Safeway Guaranteed Meats. Your purchases made it necessary. So great has been the demand for meats brought to market by Safeway's exclusive five-step plan that the original meat plant—first in the West—was outgrown in less than four years.

Safeway's new plant, which is three times as large as the first one, means BETTER MEATS for thousands of additional homes in Southern California. Here, using the latest type scientific equipment, a well-trained crew will see that each cut of meat receives the full benefit of Safeway's five-step plan: (1) Improved meat selection. (2) Scientific meat aging. (3) Waste-free meat cutting. (4) Constant temperature control. (5) Regular deliveries to markets.

A CHANCE TO HELP

Chargeable to the tragedy of waste and carelessness yearly are thousands of lives lost and millions of dollars destroyed.
A leading actor in this tragedy
is the Fire Demon. Fire Prevention Week, the seven day period
beginning October 6, should renew the vigilance of citizens, building inspectors, and civic planning commissions against the havoc-wreaking work of Fire, the Destroyer. Each year it claims a toll in this country of some 10-000 lives and in reducing once cherished homes and humming
factories to smoldering, blackened embers, lays waste annually to some $300 million worth of property.

But let it be said that the campaign of education and enforcement in recent years has not been in vain. Fire losses in the 1930's were far less than in the decade
of the 1920's when annual fire
losses for five years in a row exceeded 500 million dollars annually. More than plants and dwellings protected, effective fire
prevention means precious lives
saved!

THE DRAFT AGE

With 16,500,000 men between the ages of 21 and 36 marching to registration booths on October 16, it's high time family councils as well as public spokesmen did a bit of highly important figuring and determined just when a man is 21 and when he is 36.

Offhand, there would seem to be no room for misunderstanding
on a point so absolutely unarguable and statistically verifiable as a man's age. We're leaving women's ages out of this. But frequently public reference is made to men only between the 'ages of 21 and 35" being called. This is no doubt due to the belief that a man who has passed his 35th birthday, and is headed toward his 36th, is in his 35th birthday.

This, of course, is not true. A
man who has passed his 35th
birthday but not yet reached his 36th birthday is in his 36th year
and therefore, by the terms of the Selective Service Act, eligible for conscription. A young man is not eligible for conscription until he has reached his 21st birthday.

We sincerely trust this hasn't compounded worse confusion and given rise to a new variation on the old query, "Which year was 1 A.D.?" If you're in doubt, ask the registration officials on October 16 to settle your age status.
But don't ask the unarithmetic
gentlemen who, speaking of selective service, say it includes only men between 21 and 35.

THE NEWS extends birthday
greetings and its best wishes

COMING THROUGH

MARCH OF RIMES

By H. F. NOAKE

UNWELCOME MAIL

The first of every month there comes a most unwelcome batch of mail, queer envelopes with window panes, in each a brief but costly tale. Not one contains a word of cheer, nor is a kindly thought expressed,
just cold reminders something's due, which leaves the stoutest heart depressed. Here's one that has to do with gas, nine dollars!
What an awful price; but then of course it gave us heat, and cooked the food and made the ice. Comes one from that infernal pest,
the bill for light gives me the cramps; outrageous but of course it beats those smoky, smelly coal oil lamps. Another bill for fifty bucks, installment ten, for our sedan; it's tough but most folks couldn't ride unless there was a payment plan. And so they come 12 times each year, those bills that make us soil and sweat; 'twas ever thus, 'twill ever be you've got to pay, for what you get.

17 STATE PROPOSITIONS WILL FACE VOTERS ON NOVEMBER BALLOT

Amendment Campaigns Lack Bitter Controversy Of Recent Years

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of four articles by Ralph H. Taylor, farm leader and legislative observer, analyzing some of the more important State propositions which will appear on the November ballot. Official arguments, pro and con, will be quoted in Mr. Taylor's review of the measures.)

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

THERE'LL be no "Ham and Eggs for Everybody" on this year's election ballot; no
"Single Tax"; no spectacular
cure-alls for mankind's ailments.
Consequently, the ballot amendment campaigns will lack the bitter controversy and high-voltage contest of some of the battle of recent years.

When California voters go to the polls on November 5, however, they will be confronted with 17 State propositions—some of simply a technical nature, others
of first-rate importance.

Propositions 1 and 2 are constitutional amendments proposed by the Legislature and providing for the release of liens taken on property of old age pensioners.
No. 1 cancels all claims of State,
counties and State agencies
against property of pensioners,
and nullifies all agreements between the State and pensioners
for encumbrance of the latter's property. No. 2 is designed to accomplish the same results with regard to liens taken under the Old Age Security Act which was in effect prior to 1937.

Legislators who sign the official argument in favor of Proposition No. 1 present their case,
in part, as follows: "An amendment was adopted by the Legislature in 1939 requiring applicants for and recipients of aged aid to sign an agreement not to sell,
transfer, or mortgage real property without the consent of the county board of supervisors. This provision was repealed by the Legislature in 1940 and is no longer effective.

"This constitutional amendment (Proposition No. 1) was initiated by the Legislature to clear, without any question of doubt, the rights and title of recipients of aged aid in their property. It releases all agreements not to transfer or encumber that have heretofore been made and requires boards of supervisors to execute
and record necessary instruments.

"It seems that there can be no argument against the adoption of this amendment. It will cost the taxpayers nothing as no equities in properties are involved. It will remove all question as to the rights of aged aid recipients to transfer, encumber, or otherwise

to handle or dispose of their real property as they see fit."

The Property Owners Association of California, which signs the official argument against Proposition No. 1, takes the position that the proposal would actually result in heavy losses to taxpayers and would virtually repeal
the present provision in the State Constitution prohibiting the making of a gift to public funds
States the Association in its argument against the proposal:

"There are in Los Angeles County alone—where the highest relief load is carried—about three thousand of such liens held under the 1939 statute. They average about $250 each and total approximately $750,000. They are being paid off at a rate of about $100,000 a year . . . and payments
are being made without effecting material hardship upon those who received the public assistance. If Proposition No. 1 were to pass, it would mean the loss of this large amount of money to Los Angeles County and to other counties in proportion. In summary, there are three main reasons why a 'No'
vote should be cast on this proposition:

"First—Loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the tax-paying public, without corresponding benefit to recipients of aid.

"Second—Virtual gift of large sums of money, in the form of estates of aid recipients, to relatives who failed or refused to assist aged persons during their lifetime.

"Third—Constitutional waiver
of the clause prohibiting gift of public funds in aid cases, thus establishing an extremely dangerous precedent."

The arguments on Proposition
No. 2, a similar act, are much the same.

BROWNIE SCOUTS ADOPT A PROGRAM

Short plays which will develop poise and the ability to take constructive criticism, and instill an appreciation for literature and drama will be included in this year's program for the Brownie Scouts. By participation in simple dramatic productions it is believed that shy Brownies will learn to express themselves while the fore-ward youngsters will learn to submerge themselves on occasion.

SIERRA MADRE DOGS WIN FAIR PRIZES

Rusty Dusty, and Sierradale Chica, airdate terriers belonging to Miss May Pridham, 139 South Baldwin avenue, captured two first awards Sunday at the dog show at the Pomona Fair. Rusty Dusty placed first in obedience
while Sierradale Chica, was judged best of breed.

Vidkun Quisling, who connived
with Nazis to sell his country
down the river last April, has now—by German appointment—
been made sole political leader of Norway. Quisling, whose name has become a byword and a synonym for treachery, will scarcely get from his people the veneration
and affection they so freely gave their King Haakon, now in exile. It was through the duplicity of Quisling, and of others like him, that last week Norway officially found herself reduced to little more than a vassal state within the Third Reich, stripped of her Parliament, of her monarchy, and of free action as an independent nation. In exchange for these tragic losses, she has been awarded the puppet leadership of Quisling—a sorry bargain!

The echo of Horace Greeley's
most celebrated piece of advice
continues to roll down the years,
except that not only young men
but people of all ages have been keeping the course of empire westward bound. Closing tallies of the 1940 census show this State
has made a population gain of 1,196,437 persons in the last ten years. Of that increase, nearly 90 percent was due to the westward migration of citizens from other states. Whatever else it foretells, this population boom adds three new members to this State's delegation in the House of Representatives, increases its strength in the electoral college and at party conventions. Having grown by leaps and bounds since 1930, California rightfully wins a bigger voice in national affairs from now on.

When Uncle Sam dips down into 12 or 13 per cent of his total population and calls upon some 16,500,000 men to register
for selective service, it may well
mark the beginning of a military training program more far-reaching than anything dreamed of six,
or even three, months ago. Informed circles now predict that the next Congress will be asked to make the present five year
draft law a permanent one and,
further, that the present conscription act be lowered to include youths between the ages of 18
and 21. But whether the United States embarks on a long-term program of building an enormous reservoir of trained men is hardly a matter that will be decided by a Congress or President alone.
It will be decided by the fateful course of world events in the near future.

The stubborn Chinese valiantly refuse to bow before the "New Order in Asia." Three years of warfare finds them high in morale, dogged in spirit, and contemptuous of their foes whom they dub "dwarf thieves." Chungking, inland capital of China, has been decimated by explosive and incendiary bombs so that today
no more than a third of the city is still standing. Yet Roy Howard, noted newspaperman, back from a tour of Chungking now looking upon the unrelenting aerial bombardment of their city as simply part of the day's routine and greet it with stoical contempt.

There is nothing to indicate Japan
is anywhere near a military victory in China. Even cities in areas she supposedly conquered
two and three years ago are still subjected to lightning guerrilla raids by the indomitable and yielding foe. What price victory?
Nippon would like to know. She has already paid a fabulous price,
but victory? It isn't even in sight.

From embassies in Rome, Berlin Madrid and Tokyo has streamed a flow of reports, unconfirmed
statements, and rumors hinting
at a coordinated world-wide diplomatic and military offensive against the British Empire. All this may be merely a new chapter in the "war of nerves" to weaken morale in Britain, yet it is no secret that the much vaunted aim of the Axis powers and of Japan, a partner in spirit if not yet in arms, has been to achieve the eventual downfall or weakening of "bloated plutocracies"
like Britain and the United States. The aggressive militarist powers have well thought-out plans for gaining their ends. They know what they want. Their people have sweated and sacrificed to build up formidable military machines to that end. As a result, those powers have succeeded, thus far, in seizing the initiative away from their opponents because they, the totalitarian states, have always been first in the field. The United States is not interested in conquest, but in her own security,
but she, too, must develop a plan,
sharply define her interests, determine for herself what she will,
or will not, defend so that in time
of crisis she will not be caught flat-footed, undecided whether to act or not to act.

Wilson PTA To Open Membership Drive

Opening the school-year's program with an evening meeting for the benefit of the father's of Woodrow Wilson Jr. High school,
the Parent-Teacher Association
meeting next Wednesday evening, October 9, at 7:45 will have as speaker, Dr. Charles Clare Blauvelt, prominent Pasadena clergyman and a Wilson parent. This semester's student body officers and new teachers at Wilson are to be presented. Artie Lee Page, talented Wilson student violinist,
will play and after the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

Under the slogan "Invest in Youth through Parent-Teacher
Membership," a membership drive
will start next week.

Motorist Held On A Hit-Run Charge

Arthur M. Foote, 45, of 196 E.
Montecito avenue, was arrested Sunday by Pasadena police on hit and run driving charge. An accident which involved the car of Rowland J. Cerney, father of a Monrovia police officer, caused injury to Phillis Vrooman of Temple City. According to police reports, Foote took Miss Vrooman
to a hospital but left without giving his name or address.

At a preliminary hearing,
Foote pleaded not guilty before
Pasadena Police Judge Kenneth C.
Newell and court trial was set for October 10th.

ABOVE: Safeway's new $430,000 meat aging plant, opening of which was announced this week. AT RIGHT: Ralph Pringle, (on left) divisional manager for Safeway is shown through the new plant by Walter Balsom (center), plant manager. They see here one of the big saws used in "breaking" beef.

Put into operation this week is Safeway Stores' new $430,000 meat aging plant. In announcing the opening, Ralph Pringle, divisional manager of Safeway, pointed out that this is the second plant that the company has built in Los Angeles in the past four years. The new plant, located at 4510 South Alameda street, is used for aging and cutting fresh meats. It replaces the one that was built in 1936 and has since been outgrown. Provisions have been made in the construction of the new plant for further expansion in size.

Covering nearly two acres, the new plant is of steel and concrete type. Practically the entire interior is refrigerated. There are 825,500 cubic feet of refrigerated space in the plant. This is equal to that of 133,790 home-size refrigerators of the familiar 6.2 size. Both temperature and humidity are controlled automatically. In some rooms a temperature of 20 degrees below zero Fahrenheit is maintained.

The capacity of the new plant is three times that of Safeway's original one and makes it the largest of its type in the West. Biggest of its divisions is the meat aging room, where row after row of meat is held during the aging period. Here, under accurate temperature and humidity control, the meat stays while the natural enzymes within the meat act upon the tough tissues to make the meat tender and more digestible. Nearly 1,000,000 pounds of meat are on hand in the plant now.

One of the most important functions of this central plant is the "breaking up" of quarters of beef and other types of meat into convenient bulk cuts. These bulk cuts are sent to Safeway markets where retail butchers cut off steaks, chops and roasts as needed. Highly trained men, using big power saws, accomplish this "breaking" process.

In a large sunlit room of the central plant is the manufacturing department. Here too the air-conditioning system always keeps the temperature at the correct level. In this room two giant grinders, each with a capacity of 8,000 pounds of meat per hour, are used in the preparation of ground beef and pork sausage. Also in this room the ground meats are packed in transparent Visking casings for delivery to the markets. In an adjacent room are the pickling vats that are used in making corned beef.

For the operation of the plant and its fleet of trucks, 150 men are employed. Workers within the plant have been especially trained in their respective tasks. Some are meat cutters, some are sausage makers, others specialize in assembling orders for the markets.

The whole plant is a model of sanitation. All equipment is regularly cleaned with hot water and live steam. "Wash up" stations are spotted throughout each room. Every process that goes on is under careful supervision of a California state inspector. Walter Balsom, who was in charge of Safeway's original meat plant, is general manager of the new one.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' Round

● Army conscripts really have something to look forward to. The government will not only house, feed and clothe them; but plans to entertain them. A Morale Division of the Adjutant General's office has been set up to supply respectable army hostesses. It's all being done in a very business-like manner, and it's not exactly a plan for supplying blondes.

● Conscripts, volunteers, and National Guardsmen will have recreation huts where they'll see movies, play games, dance and avoid homesickness generally. Plan, now, is to have three middle-aged hostesses to a hut to supply the feminine touch to a soldier's femme-less world. So cheer up, boys; the government just doesn't overlook anything.

● For several reasons, there is a shortage of domestic help. Mothers have deluged the NEWS with requests for "mother's helpers" and housekeepers. Wives, weary from summer vacations at the beach return to debate the eternal "servant problem." As one working gal defending another, I register protest. It isn't entirely the servant that's the problem. It's the woman who employs her five times out of ten, at least.

● Just talk casually sometime to the girls who do day work, for example. You'll come to the conclusion that there's just as much need for schools to train domestic employees as there is to train the employees. Your charming friend who pours so well at tea, may expect her housekeeper to work 12 and 15 hours a day, live in uninhabitable quarters, and eat what's left after the family's been served.

● Another inconsideration which the average woman helping in a home has to contend with is that there is no clear definition of her duties. She may be employed with the understanding that she is to do certain things, and after a few weeks, the laundry that she was required to do originally, is gradually turned over to her. It may all begin very innocently with "Oh, would you mind rinsing out my silk things for me? I hate to send them out." And the gullible one instead of replying, "Not at all; would you mind getting breakfast for me in the morning? I hate going up early," acquiesces and soon finds herself in the position of being not only cleaning woman, cook and mother's helper, but laundress. Then there's the problem of a day off. Mrs. de Jones can't understand why her maid of all work is a little miffed when she's asked if she wouldn't just as soon take Tuesday off, this week, as Thursday.

● The women who work in homes can do more to make or break the domestic tranquility of that home than any other person involved, and yet they, too often, receive the least consideration. Of course, there's the other side, you say; and rightly so. The term "servant problem" hasn't become vernacular without cause. But there are plenty of time-laden contenders to uphold that side of the question.

● LIFE WITH A LOCAL TINGE: Funniest thing I've heard yet is the way some enterprising wives around town got their husbands to lend a hand in painting the Woman's clubhouse. The deed isn't done, but the brothers Schwartz, Bill and Tom, Harry Lange, Wave Pratt, Bill Burr, Clarence Huntsinger, and maybe Ben Mobley are getting out their overalls, and there's no sign of revolt. In fact Mrs. Grant let Harry practice up at the Chapel so he could supervise the job. Heard something nice, F. H. Hartman, Rudy's papa, tended store the other day for Druggist Skeels who was ill. How's that for neighborly spirit?

● Those three incorrigibles, Police officer Fred Lewis, Joe Swanson and Vince Hoegee have been planning a trip up to the California-Oregon line to visit Bill Murphy, for the last six months. As the time approached to go, they worked feverishly planning and preparing for the trip. Nothing was left undone to insure a memorable visit. Fishing tackle, hunting equipment and all the trappings were purchased and piled in a trailer. Every conceivable piece of wearing apparel was packed; and when the trailer was completely full, paraphernalia hanging over the top and the sides bulging, the trio wiped their weary brows and prepared to take off. Into the car they piled. Amidst goodbyes and fervent handshakes, Lewis reminded Swanson that they'd better fill up with gasoline before taking off. Swanson agreed and reached for his wallet. Suddenly a pale look spread over his otherwise ruddy features. His wallet was in his other trousers, and his other trousers were at the bottom of six weeks packing in the bulging trailer.

VACATIONISTS TAKE IN THE COAST LINE

Concluding a two weeks vacation which took them up along the coast with Dr. and Mrs. George H. Richardson of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. William Laurens Rhoades returned to their home, 529 West Highland avenue this week. They motored to San Francisco where they spent three days and visited the Exposition then followed the Redwood Highway into Oregon and Washington, visiting friends in Seattle where they formerly resided. On the return trip they came through Grants Pass and inland to Yosemite where they enjoyed a short stay before coming home.

CROSS FOR BRAVERY AWARDED HIM 20 YEARS AGO FINALLY PINNED ON L. K. LAYTON

A coveted naval honor which was awarded 20 years ago for "extraordinary heroism while serving with the United States Marines near Vierz, France, on July 19, 1918" where he performed "cool and efficient work in caring for wounded under heavy fire in the open without adequate shelter," became a reality for former Councilman Lester K. Layton when he was formally presented with the Navy Cross at the installation meeting of the State Post of the American Legion in Los Angeles Wednesday evening.

Presentation was made by Richard H. Taylor, honorary past National Commander of the Army and Navy Legion of Valor before approximately 250 Legionnaires and their wives. Present from Sierra Madre were Mrs. Layton and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reavis. The citation for bravery which was accorded Mr. Layton 20 years ago was not received by him until this summer, resting in government archives and floating through the mails during all the intervening years.

As It Appears To me

Strange how it is that dangers at a distance always seem more perilous and receive more attention than those with which we live constantly. Just now this seems to be the case in our own town, because our attention has become so exclusively focused on subversive activities, what Japan may do tomorrow, the Moslem uprising of perhaps the day after tomorrow, and the ever present Nazi nightmare that we seem to have quite forgotten our own very imminent danger here. The annual specter of autumn FOREST FIRES which stalk through our chaparral covered mountains. This was brought home to us this week in a talk we had with Pat Harlan of the Santa Anita ranger station, who says that the reaction to smoke bombs in the hills during a recent test, gives some idea of just how totally unconscious of fire danger most people are. A majority of those out for a mountain holiday did not even see the smoke which came up in puffs from the bombs.

Old timers and members of the Forest Service remember because of bitter, heartbreaking experiences in other years, that autumn is fire time for Southern California, and are urging that everyone going into the mountains exert the utmost caution to help prevent fires. A few years ago we lived through the terrible days during which the entire north range of the Crescenta Valley was blackened. I saw the fire practically out except for one tiny puff of smoke. Then within an hour, another roaring inferno within 200 feet of our home. We watched through the night, seeing the fire rush across fire breaks and oiled roads 'till it had completely devastated the region. That was in November and New Years Day brought with it such horrible resultant tragedy that every New Years since has been tinged with sorrow for us. That was the day when we looked for the first time on a flooded valley... walked by houses filled with debris... saw gaping places where a tiny home had sheltered happiness the night before... entire families swept away while they slept. It was all horrible, yet the same thing might come to our small and precious village (which we do love, even though we may harp on its supposed shortcomings) if just one carelessly thrown cigarette or match should begin a blaze in our foothills. This is time when cooperation with our foresters is our best assurance of safety.

Lots of nice experiences this week, topped by a letter from Mrs. Bertha Miller... who seeing our recent column about the suggestions for play facilities in the centrally located city park writes, "On seeing your request for opinions on play facilities in the Park, I said at once—'That should certainly be done'—So I'm writing to beg for swings, teeters, 'climbing bars' and especially those horizontal ladders for exercise that do young muscles so much good. Trees and grass are lovely, but not enough for growing boys and girls."

Thank you, Mrs. Miller, a few more such letters, showing that townspeople really do have some idea of the needs of our youngsters and we may see some really good play apparatus, and maybe a wading pool, to say nothing of a barbecue in the park.

Have you ever come upon Art Johnson when he is in reminiscent mood? If you have not there is an experience for you, that carries with it some astonishing revelations about our city's past. Some time ago we came to the conclusion that Matt Weinstein was indubitably correct when he called us "staid"... so imagine the shock we received when Art began to tell us over a 'coke' at Madeline's and Emile's that there was a time when the town turned out for band concerts which were a Sunday afternoon event on the corner of Central and Baldwin, to hear not only the music, but to watch the leader who with a baton in one hand and a cornet in the other was something of a double feature... until the time when he would forget the cornet was originally meant for music and use it as a supplementary baton. Then there were also street dances on Kersting court, and other community events which really brought people together. How genuinely nice those days must have been!

Once again our fine and generous townsman who wishes to live in obscurity... has placed our town in the news columns, this time in the Canadian Magazine Digest for October. Dan Lewis came upon the article, a reprint from the Christian Science Monitor, and told us about it. So we have another evidence that the simple kindness of preparing bouquets for people and leaving them at a busy corner in the early morning, not only brings joy to the giver and the recipient, but also commends the attention and praise of people living in another country. Have you seen Dale Davis, smiling young man back of Skeels Drug store fountain, beaming at his new motorcycle, while discussing its merits with those learned minds which seem to have reached a complete understanding with the intricacies of mechanics? The gaze of a new father is practically limp by comparison. Now it remains for us to spoil it all, by saying between responsive beams, "For heaven sakes do be careful!"

HOW TO AVOID WAR

Aggressor nations attack only when they think they can win. Here are some facts that should discourage such ambitions toward the United States

The same bomber can fly 30% faster and farther in the United States than in Europe. It can carry 20% more bombs.

Why? Because in America we manufacture 100 octane aviation gasoline in quantity—a thing no other nation can do.

But that's only half the story. America's oil companies can expand their refineries to provide aviation fuel for 50,000 planes, or even more, faster than the planes can be built.

Is There Enough Crude Oil?

Yes, thanks to the industry's voluntary conservation program, Pacific Coast wells are operating far below capacity.

No other country in the world can even begin to support a modern mechanized army on its domestic production of petroleum. But the United States can, because we have over half the proved oil reserves of the world.

The Pacific Coast by itself can supply the Navy—even a two-ocean Navy—with all the fuel oil, diesel oil and specialized greases it will ever need.

Rubber and Explosives from Oil

Synthetic Rubber, developed by petroleum research chemists, is now being produced in commercial quantities in cooperation with the large rubber manufacturers. Before our present supply of natural rubber is exhausted, the U. S. can be made 100% self-sufficient with rubber made from oil.

Explosives. The petroleum industry has signed contracts with the War Department to produce 60,000,000 gallons a year of toluene, the basic ingredient of TNT. Glycerine is being made in even greater quantities. Production of both these vital materials can be expanded to the requirements of new explosive plants as fast as the plants can be built.

The way to avoid war is to make America self-sufficient—make America strong.

The petroleum industry, on its own initiative and without government subsidy, has prepared itself to do its part without delay in a national emergency.

America's defense will never be "grounded." Petroleum will never let her down.

A report to the public on the PACIFIC COAST PETROLEUM INDUSTRY.

Three-quarters of a million people in all parts of the Pacific Coast depend on this industry for their living.

Activities For The Year Planned By Camp Fire And Blue Bird Groups

Sierra Madre Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds launched their fall season this week, forming groups, electing officers and meeting with their guardians. The Nissake group met with Mrs. Elmer Weese and plans one business meeting and one social meeting each month instead of the weekly meetings which they had last year.

Yallani girls will be under the guardianship of Mrs. Lucy Young and will meet each Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the music room of the grammar school.

Twanamus will meet at the same time on Mondays in the kindergarten room and will be under the guardianship of Mrs. Ruth Pierson.

Mrs. Leona McClelland will be guardian for the Aweont group and will be assisted by Miss Mary E. Patterson. This group will meet in the kindergarten room of the school each Thursday at 3:30.

Mrs. C. Lauren Maltby will act as guardian for Wistaria Blue Birds who will meet in the kindergarten room each Wednesday at 3:30. Mrs. Maltby will be assisted by Mrs. Fred Schaeffer. At their first meeting the Wistaria Blue Birds elected Lois Schaeffer president and Jeanne Maltby, secretary.

Blue Birds belonging to the Magnolia Group have been transferred to the beginning Camp Fire group, Aweont. A new Blue Bird group will soon be organized from the third grade.

Activities for the girls this year will include barbecue suppers at the new outdoor fire place on the school grounds; a rally at the Wistaria Vine Gardens and a Halloween party at Camp Kuni in the Arroyo Seco.

Proceeds of the subscription drive sponsored by Camp Fire Girls has been turned over to the community welfare fund.

This week the Camp Fire Community Committee extended a formal expression of appreciation to the Kiwanis Club for efforts which the club made in raising the money needed to pay the allocation to the Pasadena Council.

Kiwanians With Their Crack Team Off For Santa Barbara Convention

Sixteen Sierra Madre Kiwanians, some with wives and some without, left yesterday for Santa Barbara to attend a three-day convention that annually brings members from the California-Nevada district together. Plans for the coming year will be formulated and new responsibilities service clubs will have in their communities due to changing National conditions. Kiwanians will study means of aiding citizens in the necessary adjustments that will have to be made.

Sierra Madre is sending its crack golf foursome to compete with Kiwanis golfers from the two states. The foursome is composed of Dr. John L. Woehler, Frank Spencer, Dr. Lee Evans, and William L. Burr.

Kiwanians attending the convention that began Thursday and concludes Sunday night, are

Famous Artist of "Our Democracy" Cartoons

Hubert J. Mathieu ("Mat")

Hubert J. Mathieu, who draws the "Our Democracy" cartoon series, has been nationally known for years as an illustrator of stories and serials in such magazines as the Saturday Evening Post, Colliers, Ladies Home Journal, McCall's, Cosmopolitan.

Mr. Mathieu's first paid job was as a farm hand, and he owns and lives on a farm today. Born in Brookings, S. D., the son of the late Hubert B. Mathieu, dean of South Dakota State College at Brookings, the artist worked as a boy on nearby farms.

He graduated from South Dakota State College in 1919. In his years of success he has gone back to the land. He owns and lives on 150 acres in Bucks County, Pa. The farm which this year has 20 acres in corn, 20 in wheat and 15 in oats, as well as hay and truck, is operated for Mr. Mathieu by his nearest neighbor, on shares. Mr. Mathieu says the farm pays both him and the neighbor.

The series of cartoons "Our Democracy" scheduled to appear weekly in this paper, Mr. Mathieu draws partly on his farm and partly in a studio he rents in New York, where the photograph above was taken.

Mr. Mathieu is of American Revolutionary stock, of French, Dutch and English ancestry. He is married and has four children.

His uncle, Oscar Mathieu, is senior agronomist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, at Washington.

SAYS THE READER

PROTESTS SCHOOL

To the Editor,

Sierra Madre News:

Please permit me to comment on the application for variance which if granted would mean the use of the Barlow Estate for school purposes. As a taxpayer I protest against the granting of this application because it would result in a large reduction in assessed valuation which would mean more taxes for me and every other taxpayer.

At the present time the property is yielding in taxes very close to $3000 a year. If restrictions are maintained the potential tax yield would be much more than $3000 a year.

Should the Council grant the application the tax yield would probably be less than $600 a year. This would not be protecting the taxpayers.

Sincerely yours,
WM. GELLATLY.

OPPOSES VARIANCE

To the Editor of the

Sierra Madre News:

Sierra Madre is a very beautiful and attractive place because of its situation, its quiet, and the cordial spirit of its citizens. We are all proud of it and happy to have our friends come to see it. Many of the neighboring people love to drive through our city because it is so pleasing.

As published in the News, an application has been made to the city council to alter the zoning ordinance in order to permit a school being established on the

LEGAL NOTICE

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912 AND MARCH 3, 1933.

Of Sierra Madre News, published weekly at Sierra Madre, California, for October 4, 1940.

County of Los Angeles, ss.
Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and County aforesaid, personally appeared L. R. Goshorn, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor of the Sierra Madre News and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1933, embodied in Section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
2. That the owner is L. R. Goshorn.
3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 3rd day of September, 1940.
TOM NEALE.
(My commission expires Feb. 5, 1941)

Barlow property, the owner of the property giving as the reason for this that it has been impossible to dispose of the place for residence. Our council looking to the conservation of all that is desirable in our city, and of protecting its citizens from inroads of the disturbing and cheapening elements, has secured a zoning ordinance which does this very satisfactorily. It was prepared at considerable expense of time and money. Any alteration of it would be a delicate matter and might have far-reaching results which would destroy our property values and turn our beautiful happy and contented city into a very unattractive place.

Our city council in the main has, I think, administered our city affairs in a satisfactory manner and the citizens are grateful for all that has been done for our welfare. For the council to alter the zoning ordinance in any way except for the benefit of the citizen would be to destroy the confidence of the people in the council, create discontent, unrest and unhappiness. I trust our city fathers may not dishonor their pledge which they made to work for the benefit of the citizens as a whole, and refuse to consider any change in the zoning ordinance except as above stated.

A BULL CALF HORN

To the Editor of the Sierra Madre News:

This protest against the new fire horn being installed in the city hall tower should properly be titled "An Ode to Our Banishment."

What ungodly group of men Have polluted our peaceful night and day With the bleating of a wild bull calf?

We had relaxed into potential plattitudes These many years, And allowed the inspiration of our moods To waft us far above the mundane

Strife of greed and golden gain— Then comes the strident notes of man-made discord To awaken us from God-made dreams.

Volunteers To Work In Democratic Headquarters

Sierra Madreans who have volunteered this week to assist at the Democratic Headquarters recently opened by Mrs. Cora Corum are Mmes. Earl Starkey, Thomas Miller, Alice Dempsey, Val Miller, and Fred Griebenson. They will cooperate with Mrs. Corum and Mr. Starkey in carrying on the work of the campaign in Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Leisa Bronson, president of the Pomona Valley Democratic Woman's Study Club will be guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Arcadia Woman's Democratic Study Club at The Derby Cafe, 233 East Huntington drive, October 7.

New 1941 Ford And Mercury Cars Are In Sierra Madre

New 1941 Ford V-8 and Mercury cars have arrived in the city and are being displayed by Carl Hansen, Local Ford Dealer, at 37 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

Many new features are to be found in the new models, such as longer wheelbases, longer springs, new wheel covers, and faster acceleration. The seating room in the new Ford is wider by several inches. Larger windshield and windows give better vision.

DAUGHTER BORN TO LAWRENCE SUMANS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Suman of 272 East Highland avenue have a new daughter—very new in fact. Little Mary Elizabeth was born Friday at St. Luke's hospital in Pasadena. Her mother is a well-known interior decorator at one of Los Angeles' leading stores. But it is rumored that Mary Elizabeth has already registered protest against a pink and blue nursery in favor of something more striking and benefitting the nursery of a decorator's daughter.

CLOSE HUNTINGTON LIBRARY IN OCTOBER

Closing a highly successful year, the famous Henry E. Huntington Library will close its doors during October for renovations made each year at this time. A new exhibition commemorating the 500th anniversary of the invention of printing will open the library, November 1st. Reading rooms for registered scholars remain open all year.

for them. They're now in an empty house (two families) and so pleased to have a roof over their heads—although they wanted to try to get back to London to get their five hens! One was still too shocked to be coherent, but mostly the people joke and carry on.

"We've been having perfectly beautiful weather although it's growing colder, and the short walks we've fitted in have been as peaceful as ever. It just doesn't seem real until we see the homeless. Food is as good and plentiful as ever, and things don't really seem very different until sirens sound and it is found that nearly every civilian has a voluntary service job."

"Bekynton seems to thrive, and the children there are very happy in spite of their having spent most of the past two nights in an air raid shelter. School opens in another week. It will be interesting to see how much they can do. They've been magnificent in their national service work, but they're not so keen on books."

A postscript: "There are some heavy guns going off now!" concluded the letter.

Southland Cities Want Land Back On The Tax Rolls

Instead of letting tax delinquent land lie idle after having been deeded to the State, cities of the Southland are making an attempt, through the county and California League of Municipalities, to put through legislation that will enable them to sell the property, prorated delinquent taxes from the amount of the sale, and get the property back on the active tax rolls.

Sale of this type of property which individual owners have abandoned because of delinquent taxes or have not been able to redeem within the five-year period allowed them, is difficult now because the title is usually clouded, and a purchaser is afraid to improve the property.

Six of Los Angeles county's 45 cities have jumped the gun and already purchased 2263 parcels of tax-delinquent properties. South Gate leads in number having bought 1247 parcels. The other five are Hawthorne, 719 parcels; El Monte, 130; Lynwood, 88; Long Beach 78; and Glendale 1. Twenty-five other municipalities have bids and applications in for purchases.

Slow Local Reaction To Fire Bombs Disappoints Officials

was not only visible in the vicinity but could be seen from Sierra Madre's business district.

Two men saw the fire, alright, but instead of rushing to report it, they rushed to put it out. This says Harlan, is all wrong. People seeing fires should call the city fire department who in turn will extinguish the fire.

At 11 o'clock following the first test, a bomb was placed near the end of the trail on a new road near Lizzie's Inn. Ranger Abell, from San Francisco, aided Harlan in the experiment. After the smoke had risen to some height, a man driving into town saw it, and called to a bystander on Sierra Madre Blvd. The bystander was Ranger Abell, who advised the man to hurry into the city hall and report the fire; but the motorist decided that if Abell wasn't interested enough to turn in the alarm, he might as well wait until he got home. So he phoned the fire department after a leisurely drive homeward.

Somewhat disgusted, Harlan stated that although the bombs had been placed close to residential habitation, in neither case did the people in the particular vicinity see the fires. A warning was issued to the town at large, as a result of the experiment, by Fire Chief Richards. "Do not go to fires or attempt to put them out," he said, "the fire department is for that express purpose. Pick up the telephone, call operator and say 'I want to report a fire.' Remain at the telephone until you have been answered by the fire department. Give your name and address of the fire."

'Round The Town

Mrs. J. S. Billheimer, 37 Suffolk avenue, returned Sunday from a weeks visit at Ripon with her sister, Mrs. George R. Davis. Mrs. Billheimer motored north with her son, Dr. Philip Murdoch and Mrs. Murdoch who are establishing their home in San Francisco.

Rev. W. H. Hannaford left Monday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Leonard Weed, in the Coachella Valley.

The condition of Mrs. H. B. Hersey who has been critically ill at St. Luke's Hospital for the last several weeks was reported as unchanged this week, by Col. H. B. Hersey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hibbs spent the weekend at Vista where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hibbs, commercial flower growers, and learned a bit about growing and picking flowers for the market.

With Sierra Madre Students At Wilson Jr. High

Many new faces at Woodrow Wilson Junior High School are seen among its 1100 student and faculty members this fall. Of the 56 students from outside the Pasadena area, 26 were from other states. The majority of the many incoming 7-1's at Wilson are from Willard, Emerson, Sierra Madre, Hamilton, Fremont, Grant and South Santa Anita Elementary schools.

Sierra Madre students transferring to Wilson are: 7-1, Leonard Lassoff, Eileen Pulling, Beecher Wallace, Marjilly Sahlberg, and Lew Goodwin; 7-2, June Platt; 8-1, Allen Rhodes, Robert Anas, George Babbitt, Alice Burnham, Lela Pickett, Faigala Rosin, June Ross, Henry Yoshimoto, Jack McDonald and Barbara Johnson; 8-2, Virginia Embree; 22 9-1's, Aiko Kunihiko, Stanley Levine, Richard Jenkins, Allan McLeod, Bill Murphy, Teruko Nishiyama, Louise Osti, Mildred Davis, Esther Davis, Fred Richter, William Simmons, Yosef Rogat, Betty Jane Schader, Dale Williams, Margaret Young, Marilyn Albright, Sidney Brock, Arnold Brown, David Buchan, Marion Carleton, Elizabeth Clougherty and Ada Hill.

Don Jorgenson, David Aisawa and George Grivajala, 10-1's, were chosen for the Wilson Flag committee because they are of three different races representing the United States, and they are outstanding in patriotism. Duties of the committee include raising the flag every morning, lowering it every afternoon after school, and caring for it during bad weather.

William and Geraldine Larson, magicians, with the help of their two sons, will present Friday, October 4, an assembly for Wilson Junior High School students in the Willard Auditorium.

Among P.T.A. innovations this year at Wilson Junior High School is the plan just put into effect, which will give each room a P.T.A. student representative. These students will be given the responsibility of distributing tickets, checking memberships and seeing that each student takes home his P.T.A. notices.

Mrs. Raymond D. Andrews will attend the tea which is being given Friday, by Mrs. Frank Blauvelt, president of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A., at her Pasadena home for all room mothers and student representatives.

A Few Pennies

... a day

... that's all it takes to assure your family the continuation of your income—month after month—through a SALARY EXTENSION POLICY. Those few pennies, wisely invested, may indeed be "pennies from heaven" for those loved ones who now depend on your earnings.

Let us explain, without obligation, how you may secure this family protection.
